“Looking forward to 2014 Camp AGAPE”

Written by Jae Chun Lim (President of TRAC)

I, as a member of All Nations Church Christian mission team The Roof Above Christ (TRAC), have been a part of Camp AGAPE for the past 4 years. TRAC members have been collaborating with Milal to organize 3 days of unforgettable outdoor experiences for those with various intellectual challenges. This will be my 4th year returning to Camp AGAPE after a remarkable history at the camp.

So much has happened over the years; however, every hour of Camp AGAPE remains strong in my heart, as I gained much more valuable lessons than what I intended to contribute. Each year, God has led me to bond with many special individuals at Camp AGAPE. Through our friendships, and regardless of their disabilities, they have shown me their great abilities to express love in their own unique ways. Their joy and love have influenced me to overcome my own lack of emotions, which have really helped me to be thankful for all the little things in life that I have overlooked.

Over the years, God has truly blessed Camp AGAPE to beyond our expectations. God has helped us to witness what may be unfeasible in our abilities but through God’s grace, love has been overflowing for the past years at Camp AGAPE. I believe that this year God waits with many precious friendships and love-filled memories for all participants, volunteers, and staff members. I am excited to witness how God will prosper each individual at 2014 Camp AGAPE, and I pray that we will all embrace His grace. Lastly, I pray that in the future, Camp AGAPE will prosper across the nations impacting more people to make more positive opportunities for those with various disabilities. I pray that together, we will continue to use our God-given abilities to make more accommodating future for all individuals with disabilities. Let’s focus on the abilities of the individuals with disabilities than to limit those individuals due to their disabilities. I hope to see all of you at 2014 Camp AGAPE and let us all “Be Joyful, All the Time!”
